A color is a special way of feeling,
A nebulous image, a half-born desire,
An embryonic dream.

Yellow is the crispness of football games,
The brightness of bands,
The exuberance of success,
The quiet ecstasy of knowledge;
Thank you, Westwood, for this joy.

Orange is the togetherness of a crowd,
The warmth of friendship,
The patience of understanding,
The security of cooperation;
Thank you, Westwood, for this warmth.

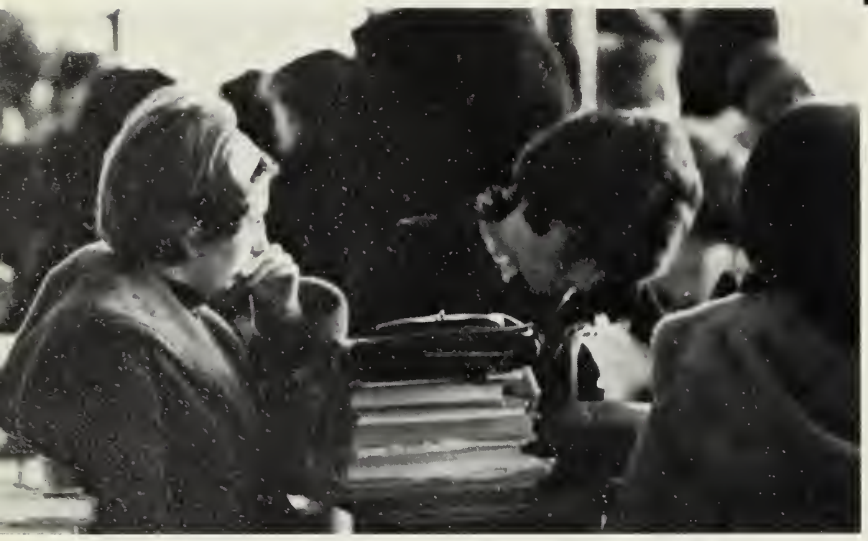

Red is the courage of determination,
The determination of courage,
The will to discover,
The patience to wait;
Thank you, Westwood, for this strength.

Purple is the lure of idealism,
The call of the unknown,
The beckoning of truth,
The elusiveness of perfection;
Thank you, Westwood, for this challenge.

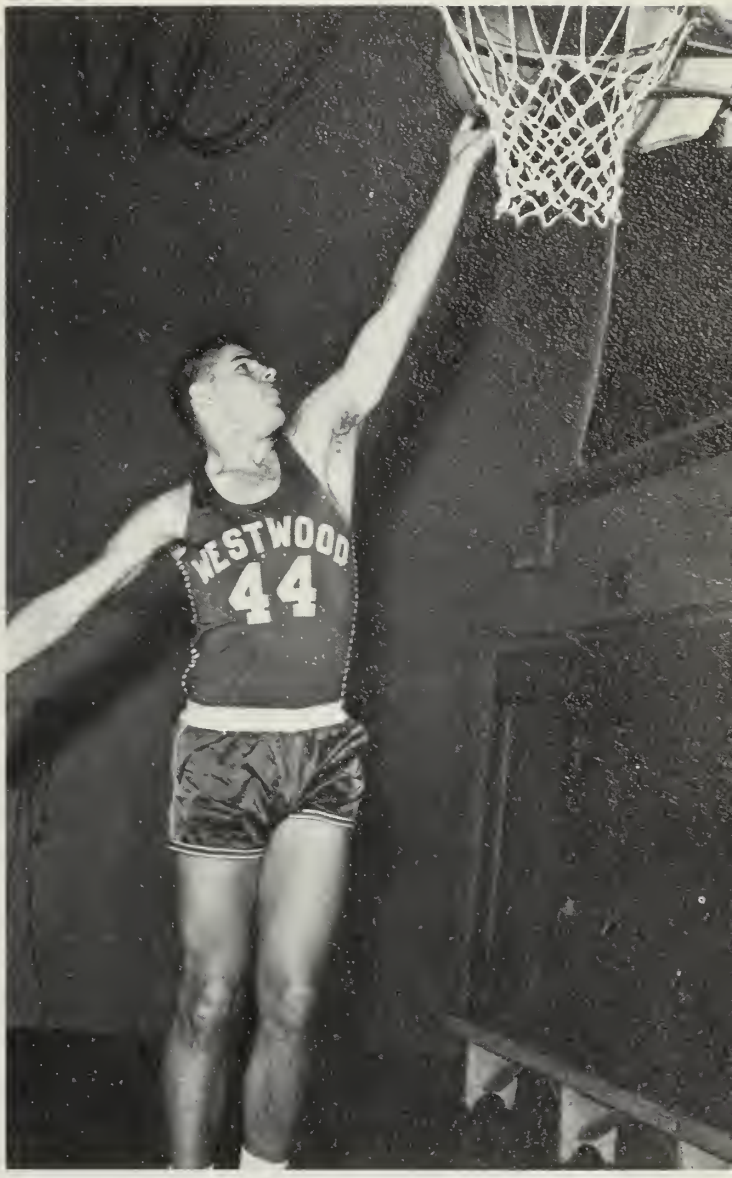

Blue is the aloneness of concentration,
The quietness of thought,
The depth of pensiveness,
The tranquility of dreaming,
Thank you, Westwood,
for this sensitivity.

But green is Westwood High School,
Growing, stretching, striving,
Raw, unlearned, young.
Green as endless life.
Shouting, laughing, pranking,
Harnessed by threads of learning.
Green is ever changing
Ever growing,
Ever new.
Thank you, Westwood, for all this
And much, much more.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

TO THE CLASS OF 1965:

The world in which you are growing up is most challenging in every way that one can imagine. At least some of your challenges have been met and to some degree mastered by all of you. The satisfactions which come to you from the mastering of a challenge should whet your appetite for more challenges. Such is real growth and its directions are legion.

It is my personal wish for you, and I am sure that it is the wish of your teachers and everyone who has your best interest at heart, that you be now able to select some worthy directions for your growth. May you master the challenges you must encounter and may your satisfactions be manifold.

In Memoriam

Barbara Massey

May 14, 1947 — Feb. 25, 1965

It is nat growing like a tree
In bulk, doth make a man better be;
Or standing lang an aak, three hundred a year,
Ta fall a log at last, dry, bald, and sere;
a lily af the day
is fairer far in May.
Althaugh it fall and die that night—
It was the plant and flawer af light,
In small proportions we just beauty see;
And in short measures life may perfect be.

—Ben Jonson

CLASS POEM

When daylight's brightest, last bouquet of clouds
Has wilted on the purple-mantled pyre,
And velvet dark the sleeping earth enshrouds,
Dawn's breath soon blows day's embers back to fire.

The bleak, bare branches guarding autumn's tomb,
The tempest-sculptured, azure-marbled snow,
And hard, black-frozen meadows, are the womb
Wherein the quickening seeds of spring will grow.

And death, the certain mouth of every stream
Of life now purling, glistening blissfully
Is only a horizon to the dream
Of everlasting oneness with the Sea.

In endless labyrinths life twists and bends:
Each end begins, and each beginning ends.

—Barbara Johnson

REFLEXIONS . . .

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

The senior class of 1961 had left the high school only to be replaced by a new crop of freshmen, eager to please and make great impressions on teachers, principals and most of all—upperclassmen. After all, we were the first freshmen class to invade the new high school, and we were going to leave Westwood High something to remember for many years to come.

To lead us, we chose Pam Biel as President, with Lynnette Beigbeder as her chief helper. Gail Abernathy was official note-taker and Justin Eringis had charge of our money . . . money, what money? To remedy this, we held our first dance "Twist with Cupid," which gave Justin something to do.

September, 1962, found us looking down our noses at the freshmen. What a relief not to be on the lowest rung of the ladder anymore. With Bill Holbrook as big chief, Lynnette Beigbeder as second-in-command, Gail Abernathy as scribe, and Justin Eringis riding herd over our nearly empty money box, how could we go wrong? Two new additions to our class were the Dutch twins. Iris and Mabel Farrell. Although they did not stay with us too long, they certainly helped to liven up the year.

Before we realized it, summer had come and gone; and in September, 1963, we were back as juniors—really coming up in the world. On to bigger and better things was our motto. With the prom waiting for us in the spring, we elected Bill Holbrook, Steve Hunt, Gail Abernathy, and Steve Evans as our officers and began to make plans for a dance, "Monte Carlo," to raise some badly needed funds. Plans for the prom, "Chanson D'Amour," were going strong, with Gail Abernathy and Joanne Prosser as hard-working co-chairmen and Mr. Baker as our advisor.

Our Junior year also saw thirty-four members of our class being accepted in the newly formed National Honor Society.

September, 1964—seniors at last! As we pinched ourselves to make sure we were not dreaming, we welcomed Maureen O'Connor from a wonderful summer in France, and received Vitorio Kaehler from Brazil, and Kamsiah Mohammed from Malaysia as our A.F.S. Students. In our last class election, we chose Bill Holbrook, Steve Hunt, Gail Abernathy, and Steve Evans as our officers. Between college interviews, term papers, and science fair projects, we put on "Junior Miss" as our class play. It was a huge success, bringing in a lot of money to bolster our sagging treasury. Now as we leave Westwood High and prepare to face the challenges of the future, we look back with mixed feelings. Glad, to begin; sad to depart.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Good afternaon, ladies and gentlemen. This is station WHS broadcasting direct fram New Yark an the 5th annual United States International Sports Extravaganza. This special program is brought to you by the makers of CHARLIE'S Pickled HAERING and the manufacturers of HARRIETT'S DRESSERS. This is your an the scene reporter, MIKE MACMAHON, with BECKY HOSKING broadcasting live ta you from Kirb Bal Fitch Center, specially resigned far this event by GARY KIRBY, KATHY BALESTRA, and RICKY FITCH. I see the crowd is rising for the Star Spangled Banner which will be sung by the famous and lovely, yaung Metrapalitan Opera singer, SUSAN METTERS. We are honored to have in the audience the renowned missile scientist JOHN VALENCIA, brain surgeon EUGENE ADAMS, and the present Miss America NANCY IVAN, accompanied by her caurt GAIL PLUNKET, DAWN DUDASH, JOAN CLARK, and DIANNE STABLER. It is time for the events to begin. In the main arena the chess game is already underway. An amazing mave! CHARLAN WITZEMAN with a magnificent piece of strategy, checkmates GERRY DESANTIS who is very clase to tears. Similarly distraught STEVE POREDA is mationing for time out; LINNEA BIRCH just captured his queen. We move now to the purple velvet pool tables where BILL REED, GARY CALDER, PAUL MURPHY, and red-satin claaked BILL MORRISON, are competing for the International 8-Ball award. It is rumored these Pros began their exacting hobby during high schaol days in Celtic star TIM WAY's basement. At the far end of the room a massive crowd is gathering for the championship tiddly winks match. Working their fingers to the bone are FRANK OLIVERIO, DINI KELLY, JUDI DAVIS, and CATHY CANIL. Tiptoeing to the sound proaf room next door, we will have to cut the lights so as not to disturb the intensive concentration of BARBARA JOHNSON, PEGGY NELSON, and JAYE VAN WAGENEN. The first one of these players to answer the question "Who is buried in Grant's tomb?" will win the Brain af the year award. No one seems to have come up with an answer as of yet sa we will leave these schalars and switch you to CHARLES FOUNTAS and KATHY DJERF who are reparting to you fram the gym. Here's Charles.

"Thank you Mike. Here in the gym the fans are cheering for their favorite muscle men as DAVID CARRIER, TONY DAMATO, GEORGE DAY, RICKY GLYNN, DENNIS LAMOTTE, BRIAN MURPHY, and STEVE SPAULDING try desperately to hald up under the strain af the mammouth forty-five pound barbell. Flash! We have just received an amusing anecdote from the south wing of the girls locker room; CHARLIE WAYSHVILLE, the playboy newspaper reporter, has just been found, camera in hand, crauched behind a shower curtain. The coaches SUSAN BATESON and MAUREEN CONDRIN have quieted the girls down and everything seems ta be under control, so we will move back to the gym. Here KAREN THOMPSON and JANET CARLSON are having some difficulty in the farward rall contest. In the co-ed judo competition we find GERALDINE JACOBS, ANNE HUNT, DONNA PALMBORG, and JANET RUSSELL trying ta autflip their male opponents, BARRY LIPKIND, JOHN MULROY, CHARLIE WEBSTER, and BOB LEMIEUX. Unfortunately, the other member af the girls' team, warld renowned tight rape expert, NANCY HOWARD, was injured early this morning while walking the banister of the main labby stairs. As we go next daor to the basketball caurts we find the mixed teams, the Details and the Rituals: MORGAN ALLEN, BRIAN CARROLL, JUDY DUHAMEL, MARCIA REES, JANE WILSON, and KEVIN McCUSKER af the Details versus MARION CARRIERE, JOHN CUNNINGHAM, JOE CAMPENELLA, DWIGHT PERKINS, MARILYN BEGLEY, and LYNNETTE BEIGBEDER, on the Ritual team. It's a marvelaus play and Begley gaes in for her jump shot, but there seems to be some confusion on the floor. A burgundy colored Grand Prix is driving over the free throw line. It laaks as if the famous Indianapalis 500 winner, MIKE McCLAIN, taok a wrong turn at the gate. Well, it will take a while for the game to get under way again, so we switch you now to TOM NOONE and MARY MILLARD wha will be braadcasting from the Octagon atop Mt. Mansfield at Stowe, Vermont. You loak a little chilly, Tom. How are the skiing events coming along?

Well, Charles as you can see, the slalom skiers, GERARDINE HAROLD, SUSAN DAIGLE, GAIL SJOSTEDT, and PAM BURDETT, who has recently recovered from a bad fall, plus RICKY GODDARD, and STEVE EVANS, and TOM ALTIMAR are zigzagging down the icy slopes; and it looks like a close cantest. Delayed for the event are primary contenders SHERYL WALL and SUSAN DAVIS, wha reportedly fell off the J-bar lift ane hour ago. We expect a repart momentarily from correspondent EDWARD TAYLOR, who is now havering over the rescue party. We see now that someone is helping NANCY BLACKWELL and LINDA VALENTINE off the chairlift. They have been hunting for a lost ski for the past half hour and seem to be quite fatigued. While we wait for the account abaut the two unfortunates on the side af the mountain, we will switch yau to TOM O'CONNELL, the inventor af the "T"-bar, and DAN RORK, who will tell us about the skating events. Here is "T".

Thanks, Tom. The skating rink is bristling with activity as the figure skaters, CINDY LEA, WENDY WILHELM, DEBBY PRATT, DONN BOURNE, RICHARD NICOLL, DAVE VAUGHN, and GREG WALLACE, try to keep their balance long enough to do their routines. Over on the ather rink, the barrel-jumping cantest has already begun. Lining up far their jumps we see the brothers TOM and DAVID RORRIE, ROBERT RYERSON, RICKY SHULTZ, JOHN SPARKS, and JOHN WELLSMAN. There goes Sparks, and it looks like a terrific. . .well, he cleared three out of the twenty-five barrels. While the loose pieces of wood are being removed we will turn you over to NANCY SHEFFIELD and BRENDA AUBREY, who seem to be enjoying the warm California sun.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

We certainly are enjoying it, "T." The beach is lovely, and the surf is up today. Maunting their boards and heading out to the big waves are GAIL ABERNATHY, KAREN SMYTH, PAULA CRAWFORD, SUSAN LINDSKOG, JUSTIN ERINGIS, JOYCE TUELLS, and RAY COOKE. Laok at KATHY MacDONALD riding in on the crest of that huge wave. What form, what grace, oh what a shame! Well here's RUTH ARCHIBALD and JIM DIONNE reporting on the waterskiing events.

Thank you, girls. Being dragged along at 45 miles an h a u r behind boats driven by BILLY BRANN, LARRY BISHOP, and RICHARD CRAWFORD, are skiers SHERRY GOTTFRIED, WALTER HEINE, MARILYN GRIMM, CHRIS JOHNSON, TERRY IRVING, PHILIP HULBIG, and the famous skiing duet, PAUL KEEFE and JOAN McCRAVE. Larry seems to be taking his skiers for quite a ride. They must be going at least 60 miles an hour. Oh no! They're headed right far the beach. Straight towards the blankets af two of our most famous celebrities, actress GRETCHEN WIREN, and fareign correspondent fram Brazil, VETTORIO KAEHLER. Thank heavens they're fast on their feet. Here are CARYL WALKER and LARRY NYBORN wha are watching the water ballet.

We are now observing the exceedingly beautiful grace of our stars, SANDY JONES, ELLEN HAYES, DIANNE GARVEY, CONNIE MILLER, and BETSY POOR. They are giving a lovely performance ta the tune af "Does Your Chewing Gum Lose it's Flavor?" Dear me, I see the water ballet has had to be discontinued momentarily while PAM BIEL fixes the strap on her bathing suit. Since this event has been delayed, we'll walk over and see how the diving exhibition is coming along. Heading towards the high diving board we see RICHARD ALLEN, EDDIE BAUER, LINDA BIGELOW, and last year's champion ED LORDAN. JOHN ZAPPE is approaching the end of the board, so we'll stay and watch his dive. What superb style! Oh no—not a belly flop! While John recovers and goes up to try again we'll switch to CAROLE AKERLEY and DON VOLTZ who are over at the other pool where the swim meet is taking place. Here they are.

Thank you Don. Well folks, the free style race is under way. TOM BARNICOAT, BETTY BELLANY, BILL HUGHES, KARIN KLINT, and JAMES MURPHY seem to be giving it all they've got, but it looks like ANDREA BARTOLO has won another race with her magnificent dog paddle! This concludes the swimming, so I'll turn yau over to JOANNE PROSSER who is wandering thraugh the enthusiastic audience.

The people in the crowd certainly seem to be enjoying themselves—especially the youngsters, far down below, we see the clawns performing. PAULA STONE, STEVE HUNT, and BARRY RUBIN along with his trained seal, Ruby, are having a hilarious water pistol fight. What's this? An ice cream cart has just fallen into the pool. I quess no one is hurt, because the venders, DENNIS SULLIVAN and BOB BRADLEY, who have been tediously selling Frosty's all day, are swimming away unharmed. The crowd is wild with laughter hawever. They think this scene is far more humorous than the clown act. Well, this looks like the last bit of excitement we'll have here today. Having concluded our continental sports events, we will turn to our reporters in Hawaii, where all the competitors will meet and receive their awards. Here are JOAN ARBARCHUK and PAUL MCDONALD broadcasting to yau from the shores of beautiful Waikiki Beach.

Thank you Joanne. Here the crowd is gathering, and each player is wearing a lai which he was given before entering by one of the lovely hula girls, ALANA MOORE, JANE PATTERSON, MAUREEN O'CONNOR, BEVERLEE OLSON, and KAMSIAH MOHAMED. The awards will be presented by the Governar and first chicken farmer in Hawaii, BILL HOLBROOK. Over in the judges' box we see BARBARA JENSEN, PAT LANDREY, DOROTHY MACLELLAN, PETE HALBREND, KATHY MCDEVITT, and JOHN O'NEILL. They don't seem to be in too much favor with the crowd, because they are continually ducking from various luscious Hawaiian fruits which seem ta fly toward the judges stand. Now the Grand Pageant has started. It is being led by Hawaiian beauties, WENDY SMITH, EUGENIA MUCCIARONE, PAT MATTERN, BARBARA STEN, and NANCY TRAPP, who are riding on a lovely decorated flaat, depicting all the sports events. Here comes another float carrying PATTY WALSH, ELAINE RYAN, SUSAN WALSH, and NANCY ROTH, who are telling stories with the customary hula dance of the Hawaiian Islands in their swaying grass skirts. And last all the players are marching two by two as friends, not as competitors, down the long stretch of warm sand. Wait a minute! Who's farther back in the line? It's KEN VOLTZ and BARRY MICHAEL still arguing over wha really won the chess match. We'll turn you over now to ANN MALONEY and JUDY SWEENEY who will let us know what is happening down there in the parade. Ann?

Well, Joan, it looked pretty tense for awhile, but judges KENNY VAN DAM and SANDY GALLAGHER have settled the disagreement by stating that there had been a mistake and that the true winner was BOB KORTRIGHT. Now that this minor dispute has been settled, handclasps of warm friendship and good sportsmanship are being extended by all competitors.

The stations of WHS will leave you with this happy scene. We hope you will join us next year when we will once again bring you on-the-spot caverage af the U.S.I.S.E.

CHANSON D'AMOUR

A memorable night for all was our Junior Prom, Chanson D'Amour. As we crossed the magic bridge we entered the world of gay Paris, complete with flower carts, sidewalk cafes, and Eiffle Tower.

Their Royal Majesties, Noreen O'Leary and Jerry Hughes, were enthroned before the fleur de lis and surrounded by their gracious court: Karen Zoda, Rae Baines, Maureen Hurley, Gail Abernathy, Barbara Massey, and Joanne Prosser. Mr. Monaghan's orchestra provided pleasant music as we danced through a wonderful evening.

To Joanne Prosser and a hard-working junior class go many thanks and congratulations.

SPANISH CLUB

Students in Spanish I and II have enjoyed an interesting and educational Spanish Club this year under the direction of Miss Preston. Led by officers Nancy Roth, Brian Murphy, and Vittoria Koehler, the members conversed in Spanish at informal meetings and entertained guest speakers. Members contributed to the gatherings with slides and first-hand knowledge of Spanish-speaking countries and became familiar with Spanish customs, especially dances and food.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the guidance of this year's President, Steve Hunt, and with the assistance of David Ripley, Vice President, Judy Davis, Secretary, David Gigante, Treasurer, and advisor Mr. Stack, the Student Council had a very successful year. The annual Snowflake Frolic, held on December 19th, was enjoyed by the student body. Money was raised throughout the year by the sale of book covers and subject folders. For the first time, the council sponsored an award of $25 savings bonds to the Valedictorians of the three lower classes. A dance was held on March 20 to raise funds for these awards. The year ended with the annual spring banquet.
